

Benefits for Clinical (MD) Professors Emeritus/Emerita

Professors Emeritus/Emerita can expect that they will be able to maintain access to many of the basic services and benefits available to them before retirement. The list of services and benefits retained are Library Access (physical material and on-line resources), Tuition Waiver, the Scholarship Program for Dependants, Access to the Senior College, Computer and Email access. More details on the benefits for Retired Academic and Librarians of UofT can be found at: http://www.ralut.utoronto.ca/benefits_menu.html.

Definitions

Dependant means a son, stepson, daughter, stepdaughter, or spouse of a clinical faculty member.

Spouse means a person who is living with the clinical faculty member whether or not the persons are legally married to each other and includes persons who are of the same sex or of the opposite sex of the clinical faculty member.

Library Access

For more information please see: <https://onsearch.library.utoronto.ca/faq/im-emeritus-professor-can-i-still-sign-out-books-what-other-privileges-do-i-have>

Tuition Waiver

Fees are waived for qualifying clinicians (includes full-time clinicians retired from 2005) taking:

- a) A part-time U of T or Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (OISE) degree or credit course, up to and including the master's level, to a maximum of $3,000 per academic year.
- b) A flex-time or part-time doctoral program at U of T, to a maximum of $3,000 per academic year.
- c) Diploma or certificate program offered through Woodsworth College (<http://www.wdw.utoronto.ca/>).
- d) Course offered by the School of Continuing Studies to a maximum $500 per course. You may take up to six (6) courses per academic year. (<http://learn.utoronto.ca/>).
- e) For full-time equivalent clinicians, the value of the waiver is pro-rated to the percentage of appointment.

Note: Some course(s)/program exclusions apply.

How to Obtain a Tuition Waiver

1. Apply for admission to the appropriate faculty.

-
- For Arts and Science courses: <http://www.artsci.utoronto.ca/>
 - For courses at Ontario Studies in Education: <http://www.oise.utoronto.ca/oise/>
2. Provided the clinician possesses all academic and other relevant qualifications an approval notice will be issued from the relevant registrar.
 3. Complete a Tuition Waiver Form.
 - Please contact the Temerty Faculty of Medicine Academic Human Resources Office via academic.hr.medicine@utoronto.ca to obtain a copy of the Tuition Waiver.
 4. Request approval of the Tuition Waiver Form from the Temerty Faculty of Medicine Academic Human Resources Office via academic.hr.medicine@utoronto.ca to certify that the clinician is eligible for the tuition waiver as requested.

Dependant Scholarship Program

The Scholarship Program is awarded to dependants of qualifying clinical faculty who are enrolled in a first undergraduate degree program or certificate program which does not require prior undergraduate preparation.

The scholarship can be applied to any four-year-degree-granting institution (or its equivalent if the institution is outside North America) which is recognized by the University of Toronto for transfer credit purposes. The value of the scholarship is equal to one-half of the amount of the tuition for Arts & Science at the University of Toronto. For full-time equivalent clinicians, the value of the scholarship is pro-rated to the percentage of appointment.

To be eligible for an admission scholarship, the student must have attained at least an 75% average in his/her best six grade 12 U or M courses; or best six OAC courses; or an appropriate combination of Grade 12 U/M and OAC courses. Students from other educational jurisdictions must present equivalent qualifications.

To apply for a scholarship after completing at least one year of an applicable university or college program, the student must have attained an average of at least "B" in his/her most recent year of eligible program of studies.

After having been granted a scholarship under this program, the student continues to be eligible as long as he/she proceeds in an eligible program of study and is not on academic probation.

Degrees excluded from the Scholarship Program:

- Law
- Dentistry
- Medicine
- Master of Architecture (M.Arch)
- Master of Landscape Architecture (MLA)

-
- Nursing B.Sc.N
 - Occupational Therapy B.Sc. (OT)
 - Physical Therapy B.Sc. PT
 - Radiation Sciences combined B.Sc. Speech Language Pathology
 - Teaching (the one-year Bachelor of Education program)

How to Apply for a Dependant Scholarship

Clinicians will require formal approval from their University of Toronto Department Chair, Business Manager, or Temerty Faculty of Medicine Human Resources Office on the Scholarship Application to certify their eligibility as a Full-time Clinician.

Further details on the Scholarship Program for Dependants and the relevant application, form is available at: <http://www.future.utoronto.ca/dependants-scholarship-program>

Tuition Waiver for Dependants in Part-Time Studies

The University will waive academic tuition fees for part-time studies for your eligible spouse and dependants, if you are actively employed at or retired from University. In the event of your death, the waiver remains in effect. This waiver applies to students who are working on a part-time basis towards their first undergraduate degree or certificate in a qualifying program and who have not previously received the Dependant Scholarship. The dependant tuition waiver benefit is taxable to the student.

How to submit a Dependant Tuition application:

1. Complete a Tuition Waiver Form.
 - a. Please contact the Temerty Faculty of Medicine Academic Human Resources Office via academic.hr.medicine@utoronto.ca to obtain a copy of the Tuition Waiver.
2. Submit the completed Tuition Waiver Request Form and ACORN/ROSI fees invoice to the Temerty Faculty of Medicine Academic Human Resources Office for approval.
3. Once the waiver is approved, submit your approved Tuition Waiver Request Form to the Student Accounts Office at 172 St. George Street, or email info.studentsaccounts@utoronto.ca.

Senior College at the University of Toronto

The Senior College is an organization consisting of all retired Faculty and Librarians of the University. It maintains SC Centre at 256 McCaul St on the 4th floor. This space is available to all members and is used for art shows, meetings, and monthly colloquium discussion groups.

For more information please see: <https://www.seniorcollege.utoronto.ca/>

Computer and Email Access

For assistance please see: <https://uthrprod.service-now.com/infocomm>