REMINDER: 2022 President's Impact Awards - Call for Nominations

September 30, 2021 • Reply to Sarah Carson

The 2022 University of Toronto President's Impact Awards are open for nominations. These annual awards celebrate and honour faculty members whose research has led to significant impact beyond academia. President's Impact Award winners receive an award of $10,000 per year for five years to be used toward their research and are also designated by the University as members of the President's Impact Academy for a minimum of five years.

Nominations should be led by a Chair, Academic Director, Vice- or Associate-Dean, Research, or Vice-Principal, Research as appropriate, and must be endorsed by the nominee's academic division. The deadline for nominations is Thursday, November 11, 2021. Please check with divisional awards offices for earlier internal deadlines.

Nominees whose research impact is related to public policy may be simultaneously nominated for the Carolyn Tuohy Impact on Public Policy Award, a separate award that is presented annually under the banner of the U of T Awards of Excellence.

Eligibility

Nominations are open to faculty members with full-time academic appointments and whose research has led to significant impact beyond academia. This includes tenure-stream, teaching-stream, clinical faculty, and status-only faculty with full-time academic appointments.

Acknowledging the breadth and depth of scholarship at the University, we welcome nominations of faculty across all disciplines whose outstanding achievements may be recognized with this special University of Toronto honour.

The University of Toronto recognizes that diversity is essential to the creation of a vibrant intellectual community that allows our researchers to maximize their creativity, contributions and impact. The President's Impact Awards are therefore strongly committed to recognizing diversity in research impact and especially welcomes nominations of racialized persons/persons of colour, women, Indigenous/Aboriginal Peoples of North America, persons with disabilities, LGBTQ+ persons, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas and impact.
