The Human Research Ethics Unit is pleased to announce upcoming information sessions to address all types of research involving human participants:

- Research Ethics in the Health Sciences Info Session
Nov. 15, 2022, 10:00am- 11:30am
- Research Ethics in the Social Sciences, Humanities and Education
Nov 17, 2022, 1:30pm- 3:00pm

Faculty members, graduate students, and staff are invited to attend. Workshops include a presentation by Research Ethics Managers with opportunities for questions and discussion.

Learning objectives include broadening and deepening understanding of:

- History and principles behind research ethics review
- Procedures under Tri-council policy statement: Ethical conduct for research involving humans
- UT's risk matrix for assessing participant vulnerability and research risk
- Free & informed consent, privacy & confidentiality, conflict of interest, inclusion/exclusion criteria
- Questions and discussion relating to specific projects and methods
